

Dear Employer:

Would you like to showcase your organization to over 100 colleges and universities throughout the Midwest? Are you interested in networking with representatives from these colleges to recruit some of the nation's best and brightest minds for your company? If yes, please consider participating as a sponsor in the 2010 Midwest Cooperative Education and Internship Association (MCEIA) Conference. At this premier event employers and educators will learn about current best practices, trends, and issues related to cooperative education and internships.

Experiential education is an increasingly important part of a college student's education—not to mention an employer's recruiting strategy! Each year, MCEIA holds a professional development conference to bring together career services representatives and employers. Founded over thirty years ago, MCEIA is dedicated to promoting an understanding of the significance and values of cooperative education and other experiential learning.

This year's conference "Connecting People & Possibilities" will be held October 24 – 27, 2010 at the Hilton Netherlands Hotel in Cincinnati, OH. Members from throughout the Midwest will come to Ohio to network with colleagues and learn from our conference programming. On Monday evening, we will announce the Employer of the Year Award, providing recognition to an employer with an outstanding co-op/internship program. Tuesday noon we will host a luncheon, followed by a compelling and interactive presentation by Doug Dunlap on Networking. Please visit our website, www.mceia.org, for more program information.

Sponsorship of the MCEIA conference is an excellent opportunity for your organization to gain visibility and increase their access to talented college students across the Midwest. Please review the options on the Conference Sponsorship Packet. Once you have made your decision, please complete the form and send it to our attention. Please contact Kelly Harper, kelly.harper@cincinnati.state.edu if you would like more information. We look forward to discussing this exceptional opportunity with you and hope to see you in Cincinnati!

Sincerely,

2010 Conference Committee
